New Pension Bills Laid Before the Senate.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, December 20.—Messages from the president were presented relative to an invitation to this government to be represented at the international exposition of labor to be held at Buda-Pesth, Hungary, in April, 1888. Also a letter from Secretary Bayard, in reference to an invitation from the Argentine republic to this government to participate in the international exposition to be held in Melbourne in 1888. The papers were referred to the committee on foreign relations.

Petitions from various states in favor of Blair's educational bill, and also a petition from citizens of Pennsylvania protesting against the admission of Utah as a state.

Mr. Edmunds asked that the petition presented by him be taken from the table and referred to the proper committee. The bill was so referred, as well as the bill on the same subject introduced by Call.

Mr. Sherman called up the resolution offered by Call yesterday proposing a constitutional amendment providing that the constitution of the United States may be altered by the action of three-fourths of the several states. The resolution was agreed to, yeas 45, nays 15.

Mr. Hoar offered a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee of seven senators to inquire into the relations of the civilized tribes of Indians and whether the existing laws of the United States are sufficient to secure to them the rights of citizenship to which they are entitled by treaty. Agreed to, yeas 38, nays 17.

Mr. Harris offered a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee of seven senators to inquire into the relations of the civilized tribes of Indians and whether the existing laws of the United States are sufficient to secure to them the rights of citizenship to which they are entitled by treaty. Agreed to, yeas 38, nays 17.

Mr. Call objected to the present consideration of the resolution. Under the rule it went over and was placed on the calendar.

A resolution offered by Mr. Cockrell directing the secretary of the interior to report to the senate the number of Indians in the Indian territory, the number of acres of land in the territory, the number of acres of land in the territory fit for cultivation, the number of acres of land in the territory fit for cultivation by white men, and the number of acres of land in the territory fit for cultivation by Indians, was agreed to.

After some executive business the senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

Propositions to increase the number of the clerks of the committee on public lands and to provide for a committee on American citizens abroad were severally objected to. Dingley, of Maine, asked unanimous consent for the consideration of the bill to provide for the payment of the claims of Canadian citizens for property destroyed during the Fenian raids of 1866 and 1870. Objection was made by Mr. Cox, of New York, who said that the claims were not those of Canadian citizens, but of citizens of the United States who had become naturalized Canadians.

Mr. Cox, of New York, moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill to provide for the appointment of a commissioner of navigation. Agreed to, yeas 157, nays 56

Our advertisers are having a very large share of our space in advertising Christmas specialties. The loss of reading matter, however, will be abundantly made up next month. The New Year's edition will average up the amount of reading matter for the month.

We have received a copy of "Our Dumb Animals" published in Boston, Mass. The mission of the paper is to educate public sentiment in favor of kind treatment of dumb animals. It is only quite recently that there was any organized effort to prevent human brutes from being cruel to dumb animals. This movement is one of the best signs of advance in our civilization. This paper is evidently doing a great deal of good. It is supported quite largely by volunteer subscriptions. Those who have a special interest in this subject will find the journal a very valuable one. While those who are not interested ought to take the paper for self-improvement.

Recently the queen of Denmark celebrated her seventieth birthday. A Copenhagen paper, commenting on it, speaks of her as the mother-in-law of half of Europe. This is a striking way of stating a remarkable fact. Neither the king nor the queen began life under very favorable circumstances. They both [illegible] to a family of very little power. By the [illegible] the [illegible] of Q[illegible] Louise became king of Denmark in 1858. The queen must have been a[illegible] of a [illegible] amma. She married one daughter to the heir of the throne of Great Britain and another to the present czar of Russia. The second son was elected king of Greece in '63 and now holds that position. [illegible] marriages, she has been able to exert a powerful influence in the politics of Europe and this influence has always been for peace. A Danish paper remarked that she was not only the mother-in-law of half of Europe, but [illegible] the territorial ownership in Asia of both Russia and England, another continent may be [illegible]

THE NEW PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The original intention was to erect a building which would cost when completed, site included, about thirty thousand dollars. As the plans developed it became apparent that to have a church worthy of the city and sufficiently large for the congregation fifty thousand dollars would be required. By subscriptions and by the sale of their present property thirty thousand dollars have been raised. This includes the organ which was placed in the church a year ago, and which will be sufficient for the new edifice.

The money already raised has been subscribed almost wholly by members of the congregation. It is thought necessary to raise ten thousand more before embarking on this enterprise. The Rev. Messrs. Black and Dickey are making an effort to raise this amount. Such a church with lecture room attached will be a very substantial public improvement to our city, and it is to be hoped that these gentlemen will be successful in their efforts. The proposed building is very attractive from an architectural point of view. It forms one of the cuts in our New Year's special edition, and the general public will then be able to judge of the merits of this proposed edifice.

A FEMALE SWINDLER

Marianne La Touche and Her Woman's Bank in New York.

Mrs. Howe, the notorious woman banker, has a successor in the person of Mme. Marianne La Touche, alias Dow, alias Ware, etc., who promised a return of $50 a month on an investment of $500. How far she succeeded can only be conjectured, as the victims are too timid to come forward but when the police made a descent on her offices at 165 West Twenty-third street, New York, recently they found abundant evidence that she was doing a "raising business." Her complainant at Mme. La Touche, Mrs. Clara Johnson, is a timid little widow, who had "invested" $150 with the madame, and when the two women appeared in the Jefferson Market police court, a stranger might have concluded that Mme. La Touche was the prosecutor and Mrs. Johnson on trial for her life. Mme. La Touche became angry and [illegible] the police easily completed a case against her, showing that she had been a swindler and confidence queen for seventeen years, during which time she had had three husbands two of whom had died rather suddenly, while the third, Royal La Touche, appeared at the trial and could be seen by the curious. His connection is well known, but it shows that he has been a confederate of his wife in many operations and a [illegible] husband for a [illegible] of fashionable boarding houses in the [illegible] Chicago, in [illegible] N. Y., where La Touche's father, Joseph Crain, was for a long time a prominent citizen, and that he test ified against her to save himself. The jury, however, were evidently misled by this proceeding that they acquitted her.

MME. AND ROYAL LA TOUCHE.

JUDGE WAXEM AT WORK.

FAIRLY SETTLED IN HIS SEAT FOR THE SESSION.

The Burden of His Letter Is the Message of President Cleveland — Business in Low Prices for Workmen's Necessities and High Prices for Work.

Special Correspondence.

WASHINGTON D. C. Dec 13 Dear Eddie:—Since when you last from the seat of government, that hot house senatorial section on the [illegible] corner of [illegible] and it's result has been to [illegible] I've learned that when there's a long session of congress in session, as there is this winter, it takes longer to make up your mind to go to bed at night than when we are crowded for time and have got to work [illegible] and do.

[illegible] I've been [illegible] a little [illegible] Pond as long ever without a yoke of yearling steers as I do over [illegible] a ball or [illegible] at any fashionable [illegible] ages ago in the [illegible] for [illegible] half long as [illegible] years, patted back six years to [illegible] Wouldn't [illegible] a stack on the sun. And there's [illegible] that kin talk more in fifteen minutes than I kin in fifteen months. But I can't find no fault with [illegible] States senate. It has got to [illegible] and I'm sure the [illegible] participate, and if we was all cram what would become of national industry, and what would become of The Congressional Record? That is a good many years to earn a livin settlin on the [illegible] for that valuable journal, and there's [illegible] can would be none of them now [illegible] I am for the workingmen's vacation every time and forever, and before I would take even a piece of pie out of any of their mouths I'd talk till my tongue got corns on it and the lungs of my jaws was worn [illegible]

The [illegible] of a [illegible] session for, and it has caused a good deal of excitement per and cou[illegible]. This tariff question heretofore has always agitated the [illegible] how to get myself fixed on it, as I wouldn't [illegible] over to another side. I am in favor of the [illegible] must gimme the very highest wages, and at the same time buyin everything he needed at the very lowest prices.

What the country needs is free trade for the buyers and protection for the sellers, and my idea of a tariff reform is a change in our present system that will give the nation such a result. It may not come in my day. I don't expect that it will but my children and my grandchildren, and your children and your grandchildren are comin right on and it is our duty to provide them at least with a foundation upon which they kin build a superstructure that will contain all the modern comforts and be a monument of political and [illegible] architecture commanding the admiration and praze of the future civilized world. My constituents air divided between plain agricultural farmers and sheep raisers, and it has been the study of my public life to learn how to harmonize them down to a workin basis on this grate and all important question, but so far without success. [illegible]

Another point in the message is fetchin the people in the [illegible]. The notion as a nation is [illegible] too much [illegible] and that is a loud call from all quarters for a divide of the profits. We air gittin to be a [illegible] national capitalist and in about [illegible] we [illegible] have a stench in the [illegible] of the poor man, which is the most [illegible] and repulsive thing since we [illegible] from a rotten pint of [illegible]. I am therefore with the people on this issue. I can't [illegible] project how we air goin to git our share at this pint at time, but the principal is right, and I give my voice with the majority in order that it be [illegible] and that purposes and with [illegible], and I shall be [illegible] of national legislation on [illegible] important subject at the [illegible]

Havin giv yore reflections [illegible] der a few [illegible] like [illegible] in [illegible] on this matter [illegible] liberation the [illegible], I will now turn more attention to [illegible]

I forgot to mention in my last letter that on the [illegible] day of congress, just after [illegible] prayer by the chaplain, a man got up in the gallery and [illegible] God from whom all blessings flow." It was unspeakable, not to say unexpected, and created some confusion, but to me it was very appropriate. I heard one man say that the drunk had made a [illegible] and ought to have waited till the end of the session to do his singin, but I rected him with silent contempt. Patriotism is [illegible] at a [illegible] low ebb, when every citizen of this great and [illegible] republic don't think the Lord should be praised at the time when the self-sacrificin [illegible] assemblage of sixty-odd [illegible] of free people meet together for the purpose of legislation on our humble intrests collectively, and [illegible] a little for rollin individually, for them as air not statesmen themselves, but [illegible] willin to help others to be [illegible] they air not forgot when the [illegible] air [illegible] distributed.

Speakin of [illegible] open up their new millinery shop in the [illegible] rooms in Patterson's that the capital will soon present a gay and [illegible] of frivolity and fusano. The [illegible] of this grate and glorious [illegible] is [illegible] not to want to cut a [illegible] in the bustle green [illegible] society and I am with them to the [illegible] boddy, soul and [illegible].

Mandy was here last winter, and after she has got over her trip to Chicago and the continent, [illegible] lectures on [illegible] and other [illegible] which her [illegible] shake with the [illegible]. I slept that from a [illegible] per, Mr. Editor, keep a kinder [illegible] in my ordinary style of [illegible]. Specimen of Mandy's [illegible]. I'm [illegible] here, for she told me she was [illegible] after years of experience I [illegible] cluded that Mandy's [illegible] herself [illegible] that's why I [illegible] thinkin of [illegible] goose [illegible] fair wife with [illegible] mann's wife is his pride and [illegible] off her great [illegible] here [illegible] judge.

The [illegible] a little [illegible] Mr. Editor, [illegible] expected [illegible] the meetin of congress at this [illegible] adjournin sine die [illegible] I've been [illegible] and [illegible] I thought I [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Wishon & Armentrout, the Peoples Clothiers, continue to lead the trade in "Honest Bargains" in

Men's, Boy's and Children's Clothing,

Hats, Shoes and Furnishing Goods.

The People have found no gilt work about us, but truly reliable selling the very best goods the market affords for less money (in some cases) than inferior goods.

Many customers, who have the good sense to look around, both inform us we are selling much lower than others pretending to sell inferior goods.

This is no animal show, but a Clothing House that is selling at ... and out ... all others, and that too for less ... than ... inferior goods.

Purchase your friends a nice Christmas Present from ... a ... precious it. Nothing nicer than ... silk Mufflers, ... Scarfs, Ties, or ... Dyed Alaska Seal Caps and Gloves.

Don't purchase ... till you see our ... Prices.

Yours Very Respectfully,

WISHON & ARMENTROUT.
